Dear Customer

June 26th sees the 80th birthday of one our finest living conductors, Claudio Abbado. The opera house at La Scala, the LSO, the Vienna State Opera and the Berlin Philharmonic are just some of the organisations he has directed over the years and he has left an impressive legacy of recordings to match. Many consider his Mahler performances second to none, yet these make up only a tiny part of a discography that also includes complete symphony cycles of Beethoven, Brahms, Mendelssohn and Schubert. To celebrate (and in conjunction with Decca's release of the Abbado Symphony Edition last month), we have reduced over 150 titles from his back catalogue, all to be found on pp.13-14. With 20% discount, now is a great opportunity to explore more of these wonderful recordings.

The 20th century features strongly amongst some of this month's top releases: Sibelius' Symphony no.2 from the Halle, Britten and Shostakovich (1) Violin Concertos from James Ehnes and Stravinsky's Complete Works for Piano and Orchestra from Steven Osborne all look to be worth repeated listening. There are also further great value boxsets, including a limited edition 65 CD set of the complete works of Benjamin Britten from Decca and a 20 CD set devoted to Janet Baker from EMI that includes many recordings not previously available on CD. See p.2 for all this and more.

New special offers for June include the magnificent 'Originals' series from Universal, great recordings from Harmonia Mundi (full-price and mid-price), the complete catalogues of Zig Zag, Halle, ICA Classics and C Major Entertainment, plus selected titles from Naive and Brilliant Classics. Plenty to get your teeth into!

Please don't hesitate to get in touch if we can help at all.

Best regards from,

The Europadisc Team
