Dear Customer

Claudio Abbado celebrates his 80th birthday in June, and DG have decided to dedicate their latest limited edition boxset to 40 CDs of his celebrated recordings from over the decades. Apparently, Abbado personally selected the featured recordings, and included amongst them are complete cycles of symphonies by Beethoven, Schubert, Mendelssohn, Brahms and Mahler. Also included is a live recording of Bruckner's Symphony no.1 made with the Lucerne Festival Orchestra that has not been issued previously. You will find this set on p.2 of the catalogue and full details can be found on our website. Don't hesitate to call us for information if you are not online!

It was very sad to hear the news that Sir Colin Davis has passed away at the age of 85. A prolific performer and recording artist, he had many fans around the world and was highly respected within his field. It is coincidentally appropriate that his new recording of Weber's Der Freischutz with the LSO has just been released and promises to be a performance of the high standards we have come to expect (LSO Live - p.2).

Other new releases worth pointing out are Decca's new Norma from Bartoli & co; a further Bach recording from Rachel Podger, this time featuring the Double and Triple Concertos; Petrenko's latest Shostakovich offering on Naxos (Symphony no.7) and another instalment in the series of Gal/Schumann Symphonies from Avie.

There is plenty to choose from within our new special offers as well - Pentatone, Linn, Opera Rara, Hyperion Dyad, Bel Air DVD and Opus Arte DVD all have their catalogues reduced, plus there are recordings from Naxos and Walhall for historical collectors.

Don't forget we have two bank holidays in May, on the 6th and 27th, and we will be closed on these dates as usual.

Best regards from,

The Europadisc Team
