Dear Customer

As the weather here becomes positively agreeable and the evenings lengthen, we offer you a cornucopia of delights containing both new growth and old returning favourites in a seductively priced spring bouquet - we hope you cannot resist!

The major new release this month is Angela Hewitt's re-visit of the Bach 48, a fresh look at this masterpiece of the keyboard repertoire. The reports indicate a quite different approach from her original recordings a decade ago, resulting from her years of performing and living with this music - a 'new-found freedom' as Ms Hewitt calls it. We have made it available at a special price for this list, along with reductions on the whole of her Hyperion back catalogue.

The LSO Live Gergiev Mahler series continues with Symphony no.8 recorded in the mammoth acoustic of St Paul's Cathedral. DG, in this Handel year, provide us with the first ever studio recording of his neglected Ezio, first performed in London in 1732 and a fine example of 'opera seria'.

For fans of the Gheorghiu/Alagna duo, there is a fascinating new world premiere recording on the Larchetto label (see page 8) of excerpts from a little known opera by Vladimir Cosma, Marius and Fanny, inspired by the writings of Marcel Pagnol.

As always, we have negotiated reduced price offers - HM Gold, Praga, Delphian, Accord, Handel sets on Hyperion, EMI Gemini and British Composers, and the Medici Arts DVD catalogue. Make the most of them.

Our best wishes and thanks for your continued custom.

Mark, Richard & Mike.

Hyperion

CDA 67741/4 Bach – The Well-Tempered Clavier – new recording 4CD SPECIAL PRICE £28.50

Angela Hewitt writes - 'Total freedom is possible only when a piece becomes part of you. During my Bach World Tour I had ample time to completely internalize this music, and I'm glad that this new recording was made after so many performances. Much of it has little editing and I hope that it recaptures what I tried to project in my live performances. The Well-Tempered Clavier is not only 48 individual pieces (96 if you count both books), but rather an extraordinarily complete whole, put together by one of the greatest minds and hearts that ever existed.'

'Her best Bach yet ... Not everyone can improve on the best, but it looks as if Angela Hewitt might have done just that ... This is a defining moment in the performance history of the '48' ... Hewitt's second thoughts, enhanced by technically outstanding recording, hold me totally enthralled' (BBC Music Magazine)
