

MARCH 2009 LIST

See inside for valid dates

Dear Customer

We have an excellent selection this month, assisted by the many composers who conveniently have anniversaries this year, in particular Handel & Haydn.

You will find special reductions from EMI & Universal Classics to celebrate these events later in the list.

In addition, to assist your pocket in these trying economic times, we have reduced the price of 100 leading full price titles from both DG & Warner.

Promotions include the Orfeo d'Or label (very popular the last time we featured it), and for something a little different, the Danacord label from Denmark.

Angela Gheorghiu's much heralded Madama Butterfly is the outstanding not-to-be-missed new recording this month with which we have coupled a special offer on her selected back catalogue. Rolando Villazon has also been in the studio to record a selection of Handel Arias, not a composer you might connect with this superb tenor, but we have heard good reports...

EMI have excelled this month with a magnificent 5 disc resume of the glorious history of Glyndebourne recordings, a selection of the greatest recordings from Menuhin on 50 CDs, a great value Handel 6 Opera box, and 6 more releases in their popular 'Icons' series. Don't miss also the latest Argerich Lugano Festival set, wonderful performances.

May we thank all of you who informed us that you would in future use the monthly listing from our website - the savings made are considerable and much appreciated. Enjoy the list!

Mark, Richard & Mike.

264 2182 The Very Best of Glyndebourne on Record 5CD see website for full tracklisting £20.50

The Glyndebourne Festival is one of the great opera "feasts" of the year; it runs from mid/late May to late August and in these three months it performs 6 operas. The operas are staged in a modern opera house (completed 1994) within the grounds of a country house. Many great singers have appeared on its stage as it seeks out new talent and gives them all an excellent grounding in the art of performance. The results are never less than excellent owing to the significant amount of time given to rehearsals, both soloist and ensemble, in a relatively relaxed atmosphere in the beautiful countryside. 2009 will mark its 75th anniversary and EMI Classics, which has made so many recordings there, is proud to celebrate the birthday with a box of 5CDs containing many memorable moments in its glorious history.
